

January 17, 2007

8:00 pm

Robert Jensen

reports back from

Associate professor, UT School of Journalism. Jensen's research draws on a variety of critical approaches to media & power. Jensen also writes opinion & analytic pieces on foreign policy, politics, & race for the popular media.

THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR

MEDIA REFORM

The National Conference for Media Reform is for anyone who is concerned about the state of our media and committed to working for change. From January 12-14, activists, media makers, educators, journalists, policymakers, and concerned citizens will gather in Memphis for an energizing weekend of sharing ideas and strategies for winning the fight for better media.

Monkeywrench Books

110 E. North Loop

Austin, Texas 78751

Suggested $8 donation to support event sponsor Dollars & Sense.
www.dollarsandsense.org

January 19, 2007

8:00 pm

dollars&sense goes Up Against THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

Join local activists and a member of the Dollars & Sense collective as we FIND AND FIGHT NEOLIBERAL BIAS IN MAINSTREAM ECONOMICS MEDIA.

Also, enjoy tasty desserts, have a good time, and support a good cause. Donation suggested to support Dollars & Sense, a leading voice for economic justice since 1974. Six times per year, Dollars & Sense magazine brings you progressive analysis of the economic news, reports on economic justice activism, critiques of the mainstream economic media, and answers to your questions about the economy. Dollars & Sense also publishes the Real World series of college economics texts, bringing reality back into the economics classroom for thousands of undergraduates each year, and inspiring a new generation of economic justice activists.

1500 Gregory Street
Austin, Texas 78702